Mrs. F. P. Longley,
LaGrange, Ga.

Dear Madam:

I have just noticed in a recent issue of the Atlanta Journal an account of the death of Mrs. A. D. Abraham, and my mother states that she thinks that Mrs. Abraham was perhaps the daughter of a Mrs. Sallie Lovett, formerly Mrs. Sallie Parham--so I write to ask if this is true.

Mrs. Sallie Lovett was my great aunt, the sister of Robert M. Collier and the daughter of Robert Collier of Upson County. Robert M. Collier was my grandfather and Robert Collier my great grandfather, although I never had the pleasure of knowing Robert Collier personally, he having died many years before my birth.

I simply write this in order to know more of my family connections if it is true that Mrs. Abraham was a granddaughter of Robert Collier. Isaac C. Collier, son of Robert M. Collier and grandson of Thomas Green of Upson County was my father.

Awaiting your very kind reply, I beg to remain

Yours most respectfully,

J. Collier
